

We could be laying on this big old couch, watching a movie on t v.

Open some wine instead of going out.

Let it all be about you and me.

You know how I love those roses and candlelight.

Sounds like a perfect plan for tomorrow night, but baby not ton ight.

We're gonna paint it up, we're gonna burn it down,

We're gonna party like we own this town.

We'll make my momma nervous. we'll make your daddy proud.

We'll give them all something good they can talk about.

Let's take a little love, throw in some crazy stuff,

Be fun to mix it up, now we're getting serious.

Nothing like a big full moon on a friday night.

Makes you want to stay out all night long.

My shade of red lipstick says hold on tight,

Could be a wild ride coming on.

When you put on a black t-shirt and those faded jeans.

Looking like you could be ready for anything.

Baby I know what it means.

We're gonna paint it up, we're gonna burn it down,

We're gonna party like we own this town.

We'll make my momma nervous. we'll make your daddy proud.

We'll give them all something good they can talk about.

Let's take a little love, throw in some crazy stuff,

Be fun to mix it up, now we're getting serious.
