

End Up Here

Lucy Rose

Didn't think I would end up here
Laying on your couch again
How am I meant to go to sleep?
When I know you're so close to me

Say it ain't so, my darling
'Cause I don't think I believe in
And I fall asleep in indecision
And I close my eyes and wish for your embrace
But I fall asleep not knowing
Whether you are waiting for me all night long
All night long

Watch the moon move across the sky
How I'd hoped you'd move to me
I've never been the type to wait around
Now I know it's time to leave

Say it so, my darling
'Cause I don't think I believe in
And I fall asleep in indecision
And I close my eyes and wish for your embrace
But I fall asleep not knowing
Whether you are waiting for me all night long
All night long

Say it so, my darling
'Cause I don't think I believe in
And I fall asleep in decision
And I close my eyes and wish for your regress
But I fall asleep not knowing
Whether you are waiting for me all night long
All night long
