

Moirai

Lucy Rose

Won't you come and meet me
And though so many years have passed us by
But I think about you all the time and I wonder why
And how you've been

Won't you come and meet me
At the café we always went to
The one with the red chairs and the front door painted blue
We'll talk about it all and I know it won't be easy

But Moirai, you let me down, you let me down
You let my love walk away without a fight
And the house is cold and the sheets so clean and I'm figuring out
When Moirai, you let me down, you let me down

Won't you come and meet me
I need to hear your voice so crystal clear
I take the blame, now change your mind, come home with me
What will be will be

Won't you come and meet me
'Cause this could be our last reminder
Of how beautiful we were in perfect symmetry
Bringing out the best in me
And I know it's never easy

But Moirai, you let me down, you let me down
You let my love walk away without a fight
And the house is cold and the sheets so clean and I'm figuring out
When Moirai, you let me down, you let me down

I won't settle for the theory you're not made for me
This fate and fortune misery
Let's go against the grain, let them think we're both insane
We'll write our own history
But first you've gotta come and meet me

But Moirai, you let me down, you let me down
And you let my love walk away without a fight
And the house is cold and the sheets so clean and I'm figuring out
When Moirai, you let me down, you let me down
When Moirai, you let me down, you let me down
