

Soak It Up

Lucy Rose

The moment has come and nobody told you so, woah-oh, woah-oh
The feeling is right but nobody let you know, woah-oh, woah-oh
But it's you, it's all for something
And it's you that could make it, make it happen

So open up, up, open up
Feel my love
Soak it up, up, up, soak it up
Don't give up

You're lying in bed
Please open those weary eyes
It's lying ahead
I'm just on the other side, woah-oh, woah-oh
It's you, it's all for something
And it's you that could make it, make it happen

So open up, up, open up
Feel my love
Soak it up, up, up, soak it up
Don't give up

You've got just one shot at this, boy
Don't waste time like it won't run out
You've got the heart and the soul of a good man
So I'm left here, just wondering why, woah-oh, woah-oh

So open up, up, up, open up
Feel my love
Soak it up, up, up, soak it up
Don't give up, woah-oh, woah-oh
