A HIPPO right in front of my eyes
A documentary on TV
What's up with this awkward feeling
It pops up every time whenever I'm about to forget
And leaves me a great impression
(HIPPO) Why are you there of a sudden?
(HIPPO) Why are you catching my eye?
I'm not going to give you my love
So please disappear from me farther and farther
Like this, if I think of that day
Rather than her
Only you pop up

Pops up here, pops up there
And giving eyes that didn't mean to surprise
Pops up here, pops up there
And run away
Of course it does!

Pops up here, pops up there
Like trying to tease me about my timidity
Think it's going to come to my dreams

HIPPO is wandering in my head
The smiles in front of my eyes are lingering
Feels like I can hear your voice right next to my ear
The scent that makes me feel like the world is wide open
The time I couldn't say a word and turned around
I'm keep going back to that time
Please make me see you
Rather than a HIPPO that's smiling behind you

Absolutely you didn't lose
You'll know if you get shy in front of HIPPO that you have a crush on (HIPPO) Just in case you talk to me
(HIPPO) Just in case you pop up from the picture
My mouth is trembling UH-BUH-BUH-BUH-BUH
Of myself, frustrated
Of myself, frustrated
Frustrated, singing it out

Pops up here, pops up there
Trying to work my brain if it's trying to cheer me up

Can't remember anything because of you
The smile on your face
Feels like I can hear your voice right next to my ear
The scent that makes me feel like the world is wide open
The time I couldn't say a word and turned around
I'm keep going back to that time
Please make me see you
Rather than a HIPPO that's smiling behind you
