

Love is, something that I knew
Love is, a paler shade of blue
And I fall down, on my own
And I forgot, to be alone

Only by the night, it was only by the night
Only by the night, only by the night

It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down

I talk, I think I talk too much
I was, reckless with your heart
And I fall down, on my own
And I, forgot to be alone

It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down

I fall down, on my own
Looking for, my way home
And I had too much
I was running from myself
I fall down
On my own

It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
It's when I fall down
