

To The Light

Lufthaus

I'm listening to your eyes
Your fast friends are gone
No surprise
Not to anyone
When you say you don't care, you do
When you say there's more left in the tank
I know you're trough
Are you gonna sort it out
Before you die
You know you don't heal
If you don't cry
If you don't cry

No trauma, trauma, trauma, karma willing
No trauma, trauma, trauma

To the light I go
In the light I know
In the light I grow

On any warm day
One body, one mind
Into the grief we are resigned
I hold the light
Like magic
But not for long
So don't panic
And they call it tragic

Find someone who loves you
At your darkest, not brightest and smartest

You just got to believe it
You just got believe it
To the light I go
In the light I know
In the light I grow
In the light alone

In the light
In the light
In the light
To the light I go
