

Been Inside My Mind

Luh Kel

I wanna fall in love, then again don't wanna force you
You been in my mind, and I hope that I'm on yours too
Baby you been inside my mind, and I'm trynna let it go, I swear I'm trying

Show me that you real, baby show me that you loyal
You get what you want, baby let me come and spoil you
I'd do anything to make it right
Double Cs, Gucci, Fendi, Saint Laurent

Let me put the ball in your hand, baby go long
Take your clothes off, you look better with no clothes on Feeling herself, she look good in photos
Loyalty and love two different things, but I want both

And she know that she can't leave me, can't leave you either
Type to give a little sneak peek in a two-seater
I just seen her on the TV, she a true diva
Thinking about GiGi, pour a 2 liter

Girl when you left me, girl it hurt more
You told me if I want your heart, then I gotta work for it
Look at you ride it like a surf board
All them spots up on your body I wanna learn more

I wanna fall in love, then again don't wanna force you
You been in my mind, and I hope that I'm on yours too
Baby you been inside my mind, and I'm trynna let it go, I swear I'm trying Show me that you real, baby show me that you loyal (loyal)
You get what you want, baby let me come and spoil you (spoil you)
I'd do anything to make it right
Double Cs, Gucci, Fendi, Saint Laurent

You get what you want, you ain't even gotta ask for it
Take it outta state, it ain't too late to get your passport
No, you my baby for sure
We rocking matching Dior
I see your face, I buy you Bape so you can brag more (Uh-Huh)

I'm not your man, you not my girl, but you my shawty
Baguettes they match your skin when they from Elliante
I grab your neck and touch your waist to get it started
Girl your a heart, when I first met you, you was heartless

I wanna fall in love, then again don't wanna force you
You been in my mind, and I hope that I'm on yours too
Baby you been inside my mind, and I'm trynna let it go, I swear I'm trying
Show me that you real, baby show me that you loyal
You get what you want, baby let me come and spoil you
I'd do anything to make it right
Double Cs, Gucci, Fendi, Saint Laurent
