Luh Kel

I'm so stuck on you
I'm always telling you I'm into you
Hope that you not leaving
Where you going bae I be missing you
You play in my head
Like broken records can't get rid of you
You win my heart every time
Against hoes you unbeatable

I told you I need you
I was hoping that you need me too
You told me don't do you wrong
I said don't give me reasons to
I got hurt before I'm trying see you
How it's gonna be with you
I can see you need some love
By the way dude be treating you

Say my name, say my name
I hope you don't judge me
But girl I need some loving
To take away the pain
Say my name, say my name
When life it get real lonely
Girl you was the only
The only one that came

Major wounds and cuts all through my heart
I need some stitches
At the moment that I met you
Girl I knew you fixed it
We ain't got to rush to fall in love
Cause I need healing
And I been trying to find my peace
I ain't dropped in a min

But it's time now
Cause you mine now I see
In the V8 with the top down she with me
And she need love
Like I need love too
Just tell me where you at
I'm needing you

I'm so stuck on you
I'm always telling you I'm into you
Hope that you not leaving
Where you going bae I be missing you
You play in my head
Like broken records can't get rid of you
