Luh Kel

Girl, my mood changed when you walked through the door
Before you came it was tears on the floor
Girl, you're so perfect, I think that it's working
You gave me your love now I really want more
Girl, you're so different apart from the rest
Cool, I dropped out I don't really take test
You gave me your love, I'm addicted like drugs
Girl, I think you the plug you the one with the best

You did me wrong
You did me wrong
You did me wrong
You did me wrong
Girl, you did me wrong
You did me wrong
You did me wrong...

All by my side
Argue let's talk
I need you by my side
You had my back when the gang used to slide
Now you gone tell me you done with my time
I thought that I needed you in my life
All of them times that you talked but you lied
Girl, you was down and you told me you roll like my Rollie
I'm done cause you lied with my guys like nah
The only plan was to ball
Remember them times that we fall
But we got up and fought
I tried to leave you would stall
Baby I gave you my all my all my all
No car we rode in the backseat
Yeah, you used to ride like a taxi
My heart fell so deep in the Black Sea
My heart fell so deep in the Black Sea

Girl, my mood changed when you walked through the door
Before you came it was tears on the floor
Girl, you're so perfect, I think that it's working
You gave me your love now I really want more
Girl, you're so different apart from the rest
Cool, I dropped out I don't really take test
You gave me your love, I'm addicted like drugs
Girl, I think you the plug you the one with the best

You did me wrong
You did me wrong
You did me wrong
You did me wrong
Girl, you did me wrong
You did me wrong
You did me wrong...
