Thank You For Bringing Me Here

Luka Bloom

I walk with my father in Fanore We walk hand in hand by the shore The sun sets beyond Inisheer I thank you for bringing me here

My father and mother love me
We're living our lives by the sea
Sometimes when my parents stand near
I thank you for bringing me here

I know that I am wanted in this world So I will grow up an Irish girl I won't pretend my world knows no fear But I thank you for bringing me here

Where the limestone slopes down to the sea Where my father walks tall, proud and free Where the birdsong is music to my ear I thank you for bringing me here I thank you for bringing me here I thank you for bringing me here
