

Venus

Luka Bloom

Because of who you are
I can see the road to follow
Every day with you
Will be as though there's no tomorrow

Venus passes by the sun
Venus passes by the sun
Venus passes by the sun
Love doesn't always come to everyone

Only once in a blue, blue moon
Do lovers find each other
And make it to the precious room
To become a father and mother

Venus passes by the sun
Venus passes by the sun
Venus passes by the sun
Love doesn't always come to everyone

And tomorrow is easy to see
When the unconditional is free

Venus passes by the sun
Venus passes by the sun
Venus passes by the sun
Love doesn't always come to everyone
