

Better Than Yourself (Criminal Mind Pt 2)

Lukas Graham

I got the letter back,
Saying I can come and see you
I really don't have time,
But promised that I'd come and see you
You're sitting far away,
But do you know I sometimes need you
I know that you deserve the time you got
Of all the people

I know you never bend,
Even in the strongest wind
I really wished to every god
That you were innocent
I'm happy and I'm proud
That I can still call you my friend
I hope you read the letters
And the magazines I send

You've got your head up
But I don't have my hopes high
I know that you're a good man
And that's what brings a tear to my eye

I'm like, oh
I hope you know you're not alone in that hell
And there ain't, no
No one can change it,
No one can do it better but yourself

I was sixteen
And we used to roll together
You told me back then
That I was meant for something better
You know in our life
Nothing's gon' change but the weather
It seems it's been forever,
Since we really stuck together

I'm living a crazy life
I wish that you could see it too
See a thousand people
Sing my song from me to you
Every time I sing it
You know I'm bleeding too
Man, I accept you as you are
No, I don't need the truth

I got my head up
But I ain't got my hopes high
See, I know you're a good man
And it—it brings a tear to my eye

And I'm like, oh
I hope you know you're not alone in that hell
And there ain't, no
No one can change it,
No one can do it better but yourself

I reminisce to back then, when it was you and I
Smoking big fat blunts, drive-in movie night
They tried to get you down, but you refused to die
They tried to give you angel wings, but you refused to fly

You'd rather stay in hell, and take your time in jail
They're only punishing a soul that you will never sell
We both know that we owe nothing to each other
But can you blame me for loving and missing my brother

Oh
I hope you know you're not alone in that hell
And there ain't, no
No one can change it,
No one can do it better but yourself

Oh
I hope you know you're not alone in that hell
And there ain't, no
No one can change it
No one can do it better but yourself
