

Alcohallelujah

Lukas Nelson & Promise Of The Real

Alcohallelujah

Sunday fun day
Headache Monday
Buddy got a good wife, holding for dear life
Was a time she dug him, but she won't even hug him
She got tired of boozy lovin'

Father, I must make me a confession
Forgive me, Father, for I've been inspired
I got bars and bars of melodies and memories
May this spirit lift me ever higher

Can I get an alcohallelujah?
I'm drinkin' on a prayer
Prayin' you ain't lying when you say you care

Coast clear, crack a beer
We been kissin', whiskey river
Take my mind again
Wash away my sin
Caught a little luck
The door's a little stuck
Maybe 'fore we leave the truck
We can have a real quick

Father, I must make me a confession
Forgive me, Father, for I've been inspired
I got bars and bars of melodies and memories
May this spirit lift me ever higher

Can I get an alcohallelujah?
I'm drinkin' on a prayer
Prayin' you ain't lying when you say you care

Old friends miss me
Baby won't kiss me
Day drinkin', trying to float
I can't even drive the boat
Baking in the sun
Soaking up the fun
Father Time don't scare me none, 'cause

I've been up late howling at the moonlight
Dancing with the devil through the night
Got bars and bars of melodies and memories
May this spirit lift me ever higher

Can I get an alcohallelujah?
I'm drinkin' on a prayer
Prayin' you ain't lying when you say you care
Can I get an alcohallelujah?
I'm drinkin' on a prayer
Prayin' you ain't lying when you say you care
