(Your) Your love was an addiction (-diction)

Yeah, if I had a DeLorean
I'd go back to the day where you sent that DM and ignore it
It felt so important and
All the time and the love that I spent, I thought I could afford it
But you been pretty from the jump, been had love from the boys
I put glitter in the bank, first time I was making noise
Double my money and lose all my love (All my love)
Triple my money and [?]
I've been a fighter, but never a thug
I just started rapping 'cause I wanted love
Thought I had found it
Sent you a song and you was astounded
We announced it
And I've been addicted since you been around here

I gotta honor it, I guess
I used to wanna rest up on your belly
The rhythm of your heart, it turned a thought into a medley (God damn) (Your
