

BALLERS AND SKATERS

Luke Christopher

(Yeah)

She said I'd never date her
Only hangs with ballers and the skaters
Loving me won't do her any favors
It's not cool to be creative, please
So I said, "I'll see you later"
Only mess with ballers and the skaters
Loving you won't do me any favors
'Cause it's cool to be creative, please
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)

Out of space, really stay, I'ma make a killing
Crib in the stars with a hundred foot ceilings
Dreams in my past that have built who I am
Life's moving fast, I've got land in Japan
If I am a nerd, still the man if you ain't heard
I got plans, do my dance, take a chance so I get heard
I got things I wanna say, I got things I wanna do
And if you hear my advice, I tell you, you should do it too

I still remember you
This ain't middle school, no more
I'm not a fool no more

She said I'd never date her
Only hangs with ballers and the skaters
Loving me won't do her any favors
It's not cool to be creative, please
So I said, "I see you, later"
Only mess with ballers and the skaters
Loving you won't do me any favors
'Cause it's cool to be creative, please
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)

(Yeah, yeah, yeah) I ain't got no problem, man I am what I am
Swear, I came up out the womb doing the new running man
Mama knew that I was special when she helped me a hand
And a few years later now I'm feeling them stands
I'ma new wave maker, I was born for this shit
Shake her hand with a hater, I got a hold my dick
I just say what I feel, and you feel all this shit
You can roll with the punches or you can roll up a spliff

So I said "I'll see you later"
Only mess with ballers and the skaters
Loving you won't do me any favors
'Cause it's cool to be creative, please
So I said, "I see you later"
Only mess with ballers and the skaters
Loving you won't do me any favors
'Cause cool to be creative, please
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)
