This goes out to: Almost September, Jared Lee, Whitey, MC Lyte
For making one of my favorite Hip-Hop tracks of all time

They say hop for the man in the spot
Big man on the block
Till you got got, heart dropped in your socks
Had you locked for the meanwhile
In love, ain't no other way to be now
So we see now
And he was wrong when he used them females
Karma come around, now he the rebound
He found a dime, so he picked her up
Diamond in the rough
Spent a grip buffing her up
He's out of luck
She found a man with a bigger plan
And a bigger nut-
Shell to fall back on
When rainy days become thunder storms
Thought he bought her
But he came with a bigger offer
And now she gone, so gone, sing the song

Feels just like a stranger
Only man in the crowded place
I'm so lost without her
Just a fool's lost his way

Guess it's true when they do speak about
Love it'll eat you up and spit you out
I guess the lesson to learn is when his only concern
Is about the bridge he could burn
He hit Nora, Keisha, Laura, Teisha
Cold-blooded, whatever he said, they loved it
And now the tables have turned and he's the one buggin'
Tripping, waiting for the honey to call
Truth: she ain't think about him at all
Now he's the only mister lonely in last call
While the others have a ball
He's hoping he can stay away from love and never fall
But he's wrong, so wrong
Sing the song

Feels just like a stranger
Only man in the crowded place
I'm so lost without her
Just a fool's lost his way

Everybody knows
Up under them clothes
Goosebumps from your head to your toes
It's hard to control
That's just the way love goes

Feels just like a stranger
Only man in the crowded place

I'm so lost without her
Just a fool's lost his way
