

BIG HEADED

Luke Christopher

All odds in our favor, we're like the Titanic
Our music is major, happy, and romantic
Our hearts are on fire, we're full of desire
But we're still alone, yeah

We're not even built for love, I'm convinced
All I see is blurry lights when I squint
I might be a sinner, but I'm not alone
Sunshine and shadows I drag along

[?] be smart
All these critics are these people, just [?]
We put our bodies on the line for freedom
While they just watching from the bleachers, feet up
You let people comment on your life like it's a show
You post a picture on the site, you let 'em joke
You try and pay that shit no mind, but can't control
The way it makes you feel inside like you 'bout to choke
If you don't let it all affect you, they call you up
If you get fed up and you check them, it's unprovoked
Blows comin' from my chest like I love to smoke
Fuck it, y'all want the truth or y'all want a show?
Well, figure I'm just the one that's gonna give ya both
Caught up in a landslide, you could lose your damn mind, I
I ain't on a tantrum, babe, this your anthem
You gonna have to sing it till your eyes go wide

Talkin' 'bout people in the comments go, "Blah blah blah" (All this time, all alone)
Get you in the heart of the crack, crack, crack (On the phone like the Bible)
You could be searchin' but you'll never find love (All this time, all alone)
Reachin' for the stars but you never line up (On the phone like the Bible)
I think that we're taking this way too heavy (All this time, all alone)
Maybe we should be a little more big-headed (On the phone like the Bible)
(All this time, all alone, on the phone like the Bible)

I spent all this time all alone, on the phone, read it like the Bible
When I get home, lay down, grow old
And I tried to think of things
Eyes don't blink
Is it real, this?
Is it even real?

We're not even built for love, I'm convinced
All I see is blurry lights when I squint
I might be a sinner, but I'm not alone
Sunshine and shadows I drag along

You, are you a phantom or are you real?
Are you a dream or just a pill that I've been taking?
I swear that I've mistaken this before
(You, are you a phantom or are you real?)
(Are you a dream or just a pill that I've been taking?)
(I swear that I've mistaken this before)
