

CALL ME BACK

Luke Christopher

Drop down to my knees with time to meditate
Shit, I've been to hell and back for heaven's sake
I'ma keep on rising 'til I levitate
And my real life and my fantasy can't separate
They like, "You 'bout to blow", I'm like, "Bruh, you don't even know"
They like, "What's it like on the top?", I'm like, "Trust me, I'll let you know"
It was so long ago, uh, I might have been five or six
When I knew I was born for this

That doesn't change that on these long nights, I've been feeling alone, babe
Sorry if I'm blowing up your phone, babe
I don't mean to do it to you
Please just call me back
'Cause on these long nights, I've been feeling alone, babe
Sorry if I'm blowing up your phone, babe
I don't wanna to do it to you
Please just call me back

This life gets lonely when you calling it hard
Setting yourself apart, there's nobody to talk to
This life gets lonely when you calling it hard
Setting yourself apart, there's nobody to talk to

Yeah, tripping, you can tell I've been sipping
You can tell I've been overthinking it, overdrinking it, tripping
Things I said I was gonna do, but I never did 'cause I was slipping
It doesn't mean that I failed you, I'm just getting more aware boo
Cause I-I, I don't got no time for the past (For the past)
Future that I'm building's gonna last (Gonna last)
It doesn't mean that I failed you, I'm just getting more aware boo
Why they staring, watch like a scarecrow?

On these long nights, I've been feeling alone, babe
Sorry if I'm blowing up your phone, babe
I don't mean to do it to you
Please just call me back
'Cause on these long nights, I've been feeling alone, babe
Sorry if I'm blowing up your phone, babe
I don't wanna to do it to you
Please just call me back

Yeah-ye, yeah-ye, yeah-ye, yeah-yey
Yeah-ye, yeah yeah, yeah-ye, yeah
Yeah-ye, yeah-ye, yeah-yey, yeah-ye
Eh-yeah, yeah-ye, yeah
All the time, this is on my mind
Ain't got no one to talk to, ain't got no one to talk
I swear all the time, this shit is on my mind
Ain't got no one to talk to, ain't got no one to talk
