

CHAMPAGNE RAIN

Luke Christopher

Life's too short, fucking up is necessary
'Cause one day all these bad women will be married
Life's too short, fucking up is necessary
'Cause one day all these bad women will be married
(Smoke clouds in the champagne rain)
So let that champagne rain

Yeah, I told my homie life is such a bitch, I feel it
He said then why don't you hit it like a chick and kill it
And treat her like your main
Maybe take a fucking train to the highest mountain
Up in Spain, make it rain
Dealin' with my life and the feelings involved
Fine silhouettos, stilettos and all
Sipping all night, I ain't dripping at all
But I been tripping a little 'cause I been sipping a little
But why can't we be like trees be, have this money be like leaves be
And all year long you told them, I have this paper falling like

So fill my cup, I ain't had enough
I gave my nigga the keys and get him turned up
So fill my cup, fill, fill my cup

Life's too short, fucking up is necessary
'Cause one day all these bad women will be married
(Smoke clouds in the champagne rain)
So let that champagne rain

I can't believe it's been a year already
My whole damn family is here all ready
And J Slay had this one big already
Throwing money looking like this damn near confetti
I don't fear nobody, don't need no money
I showed up, for two dubs, when there's love
When there's honies, DJ stick this with the needle
Haters, we can't see y'all
Prolly 'cause I put my people and I love my people

So fill my cup, I ain't had enough
I gave my nigga the keys and get him turned up
So fill my cup, fill, fill my cup

Life's too short, fucking up is necessary
'Cause one day all these bad women will be married
(Smoke clouds in the champagne rain)
So let them champagne rain
