

HEAVEN AFTER ALL

Luke Christopher

I know there's a heaven after all
I see it in your eyes
You catch me when I lose myself and fall
Did you get your wings yet, darling?
I really think you might be on to something
I really think you might be
I really think you might be on to something
I really think you might be

I know there's a heaven after all
I see it in your eyes
You catch me when I lose myself and fall
Did you get your wings yet, darling?
I really think you might be on to something
I really think you might be, darling
I really think you might be on to something
I really think you might be

Yeah, fist fight between angels about which one gets to raise y ou
Bad thing about good people is they still need to get saved, to o
Good thing about bad people is at least they got a place to
At least they got a way to live past that grave, too
Saw a bluebird singin' 2Pac today
Cop walked up, then walked away
Block out hard, then stop to pray
We all got a really big part to play
We all got a really small part to play, it's hard to say
If you woulda asked me yesterday, before I saw your face
I probably wouldn't have said the same thing

I know there's a heaven after all
I see it in your eyes
You catch me when I lose myself and fall
Did you get your wings yet, darling?
I really think you might be on to something
I really think you might be
I think I gotta hold on to something
Whoa