

I Am Knowone (You & Me)

Luke Christopher

It's gonna be you and me
It's gonna be everything you've ever dreamed
It's gonna be who and me
It's gonna be everything

So does anybody know if there's a God of being faded
Cause if so I need a blessing
I just saw behind your eyes and
Hide your heart behind your breasts
I'm standing at the corner
Of "I'm drunk" and "That's upsetting" sayin'
I'm so fuckin' dope
But instead of fuck I just say effin' why?
This shit don't cut the same
I'm Luco Suave all my girls say that's my Lover name
My mentality gives [?]
If I think I cannot do do
Nigga tweet me Instagrams
Or Google me on fuckin' YouTube
Cause it's obvious it's anonymous
Late for Rapoholics Anonymous
It's like we'd opened the liquid gold
That were drowning us
In hopped up fucking glow
In there why these bitches are down with us
Horns are squeaky like we at Clowns'R'Us
Moving music like hundred pounds a buck
And niggas want verses and beats so they keep pounding us
Yo, we the rapping calculators you can count on us

That much I know
I swear all my life I've been searching for gold
And I ain't gonna leave you in the cold
You should know the world don't wait for noone
I say oh

You should know the world don't wait for noone
I say oh

Killing the melody like Godzilla on LSD
The alcohol so beautifully killing these memories
Now I'm a better me
Esmerelda did you hear that?
I said I'm a better me
Tell me how could you still fear that
I'ma running from the hipster
Who's just such a better listener
When I'm sitting with a woman
With an ass like she's a dancer
Cause all that really matters
Is me not being a coward
And saying how I love you
And it not taking an hour
Who'm I kidding I'm trynna smash
But the world don't spin for her
So how the world gon' spin for ass?
The world don't spin for ratchet

And the world don't spin for class
But I bet you it spin backwards
For a pocket-full of cash
Hand all I got's a pocket full of laughs
A bunch of text message
From the girls I never had
She might blame it on the past
Or relationship with her dad
But now they be like "Luke, remember be?"
I be like "Nah..."

You should know the world don't wait for noone
I say oh
