A scientist will bet you
That love in a test tube will give you the best results
Well
I just don't think we'd say so
And I sometimes forget that love is ambidextrous
Don't pick sides because
Well
I just don't think we'd say so
But I'd
Bet a hundred bucks to fall in love, love with you
And I'd bet you, when you need me
I'd show up for you
And I'd bet you, if you seize me
I don't turn to lose you, babe

'Cause the truth is
No matter if we meet in Shibuya
Or at some house party
In the living room 'cause
I'm so tired of waiting for the perfect love story
Baby you and me
Gon' be anything but boring love
And the band keeps playing on and on
All of a sudden it's my favourite song

Yeah
I wasn't even planning on going out tonight
Alone in my bed, inside of my head
That's where the demons hide
I just get confused sometimes
I don't mean I lose my mind
But I well...
You know...
Anxiety's a bitch sometimes
Soon, as I got to function
My head started runnin'
Everyone look like they're happy
I'm over here dealing with something
Yeah, I'm Debbie Downer
Just lookin' for Debbie's to get in the bed with me
Filling my belly with alcohol, meddies
Need someone to stay with me
