

NO FRIENDS

Luke Christopher

I don't need no friends, you know I'm all about my baby
They see us together, they start looking at us crazy
Told her, "fuck with me, make sure your future is amazing"
[?] shawty know she golden

True shit, had to hit, niggas way fast
So they get reminded to text a friend, who's him?
On the rise, gave the time
But no more hard enough
My Pocahontas how she teach me this brave new world
I told her, I teach her something too if she be my girl (Damn)
You can flex all over your friends all playfully (Wow)
You can pick a girl, but they can come and stay with me too
I do not mind, you could be my bride, it's fine
Is when I tell my niggas

I don't need no friends, you know I'm all about my baby
They see us together, they start looking at us crazy
Told her, "fuck with me, make sure your future is amazing"

I don't need no fucking friends, I'm all about my bae
Body and a brain, that's that California ray shit
Ya'll keep talking shit, I'm just giving dick
Wake up with a random, baby this dick not for ransom (I-I, ay)
She got everything I need (Yeah)
That's my POV, don't speak to me (Ay, yeah)
In the SUV, she under me, grabbin'
Looking for some traction
Man, she be the type to hype you up to her crew
Have her friends all saying "Ooh"
I don't wanna mislead you
Gotta do what you gotta do (Yeah)
But if she play me
She gon' really be mistaken
She gon' spend her whole life praying
That she could change it, but she can't, but

I don't need no friends, you know I'm all about my baby
They see us together, they start looking at us crazy
Told her, "fuck with me, make sure your future is amazing"

Ay, never let her go then
Ay, never let her go then
Ay, never let her go
There she roll
