Yeah

Im tryna breathe
Im tryna breathe

What a feeling
What a purpose
Man I'm hoping that its worth it
Theirs been moments I been crazy
I been drinking what's the focus
I been drowning high as mountains
Flying while I'm grounded
They dreamers are pathetic
Well of course unless they get it
But is that a misconception
And is this an intervention
Cuz I fell in love with this first rap and it's all your first impression
Cuz I'm just tired of guessing
Do I just address this letter
Life is getting better when the vodka's chased with blessings
And the girllies look like dolls
The champagne waterfalls
They calling for conforming
I guess I just missed a call
And that's bravado
Who's courageous
Some get famous
Some gone name us
Fuck them louder
Nothings badder than a gunman who is aimless
Damn we dangerous
And we can show it
They best part is that they know it
So I'll be standing someone between a rockstar and a poet
With my eyes fixed on life
My head in the sky
My dreams in my pocket
You on my mind
