Truth is, I don't know what the hell I'm doing
I live in my head nowadays
Maybe it's because I'm so madly in love with music
I just don't know anything else
But God damn it, I wouldn't have it any other way
And that's why it's written on my arm
And that's why I'm in the studio damn near every day
You don't know how much I appreciate y'all listening
And I hope at some point y'all can get used to me
But I'm about to shut up and get on my beat shit

Tomorrow, tomorrow
I love ya, tomorrow
You're always a day away
Tomorrow, tomorrow
I love ya, tomorrow
You're always a day away
Tomorrow, tomorrow
I love ya, tomorrow
You're only a day away

Peace and love, Luke Christopher
