

PREFER THE RAIN

Luke Christopher

Thought that you were different when I met you
Turns out that you're nothin' but the same
'Cause I had higher expectations
Ooh

Still I can't help but miss you
I'd rather get hurt again
It's these personal issues
I think I prefer the rain, rain, rain

(I just)
Wish that I could fall asleep
But I texted you, I ain't heard a peep
I was a Brad Pitt and you were Jolie
Yah-aye

I thought that you were different when I met you
Turns out you're nothin' but the same
I just had higher expectations
Ooh

Still I can't help but miss you
I think I just like the pain
It's these personal issues
I think I prefer the rain, rain, rain

If you wanna go somewhere
Then we can go somewhere
You know I
We just gotta talk it out
We gotta know each other
You know I

Sorry you a problem
Don't go no other way to solve it
I was hoping I could buy you house in the hills
Expense you with expensive shit
I could get a diamond ring
Anything to make you stay
You could be my only one
Yeah I should be your only one
I, I

(Besides)
I can't help but miss you
I think I just like the pain
It's these personal issues
I think I prefer the rain, rain, rain

I just had higher expectations (Yeah)
I just had higher expectations
