

Pretend

Luke Christopher

I've been on the highway
Thinking 'bout the times, babe, that we had
Foot are on the gas and I'll never look back
But now you, you got a boyfriend
I've been alone since - we were just poison
It's gonna be hard for me to love again
To find someone who truly understands

But see shawty, I can't even breathy, shawty
It's hard for me to stay but it's harder to leave shawty
I [?] a little bit, got me wanting to keep shawty
Start to argue, all of sudden I am underneath shawty
She [?] at - shit, I'll be obese like a heart attack
Niggas hear my shit say, "I wanna be a part of that"
If they ain't my dawgs then they start to be a copycat
I'm scared to surround myself with other niggas that wanna rap
'Cause this hurt - I feel good
And go home, listen to Biggy and it feel hood
So strange as a child, used to wish I could
Since you, all you tryna do is feel real good, it's crazy

And I still can't believe
Tell me, have you ever had a question of love? Hey
'Cause it's so hard to hear
Baby, tell me all of it
Was our love just pretend?

Yeah, look shawty, the hatred that I breathe
Has only been a part of me for these three latest weeks
I love to put it on myself, but baby, as it seems
I did everything for you, but you ain't do nothing for me
You can do nothing with ease, I just wanted to please you
I would drive across the city only to see you
Looking at it now, I can tell that it see through
Said you want love but I never believed you

And I still can't believe
Tell me, have you ever had a question of love? Hey
'Cause it's so hard to hear
Baby, tell me all of it
Was our love just pretend?

Oh-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh-oh

Yeah, and she says all move
But that's not fair
See, I would take her anywhere
[?] trust me, I know what it's like to be alone
Ooh, but she says all rude
But that's not fair
See, I would take her anywhere
Just don't wanna be alone

And I still can't believe
Tell me, have you ever had a question of love? Hey
'Cause it's so hard to hear

Baby, tell me all of it
Was our love just pretend?

Ooh, the love, the love
Can I get [?]
Can I get [?], yeah
I believe in me
