

Selfish Love

Luke Christopher

You let 'em put your heart in a shopping cart
Just to toss it out in the end
I wonder if you had enough
Of the selfish love
And you blame yourself for a heart so big
When the ones you love are oblivious
I wonder if you had enough
Of the selfish love

You got a good one right in front of you
I hope you see
To show you not alone here
I apologise for being frank
But I like you
I can't let you walk through the rain
By yourself
Cause it's bad for your health
And girl, if anybody knows it's me
I know he's got
2 cribs 2 cars
1 is a Ferrari
Get you in the hottest clothes and the hardest parties
If he don't make you laugh in the end
You gon' be sorry

You let 'em put your heart in a shopping cart
Just to toss it out in the end
I wonder if you had enough
Of the selfish love
And you blame yourself for a heart so big
When the ones you love are oblivious
I wonder if you had enough
Of the selfish love

Loving heart comes easily to you
Others wait until they see the proof
You need someone who's gon' see it through
I- I Do
[?] little bitch
Looking for the passion got enough to split it
I believe in heaven now that I felt your lips
[?] give me things I wanna list
And we ain't gotta talk at all to feel these feelings
You've never been loved like you love
Do you get it?
I'll be the nigga if you just let me
But you gotta be done with all this

You let 'em put your heart in a shopping cart
Just to toss it out in the end
I wonder if you had enough
Of the selfish love
And you blame yourself for a heart so big
When the ones you love are oblivious
I wonder if you had enough
Of the selfish love
Ahhhhhhh

(Ahhhh ahhh ahhh)
