

SIBLING LOVE

Luke Christopher

[?] see you in a minute
I'm writin' you from mama's house and home
Wish you knew how much that we both missed you
We ain't been the same since you've been gone

Lucy, I'm so sorry that I left you
I just haven't felt like me in years
'Cause when I finally came of age
I've rushed so fast to turn the page, and
I left my only fan

[?] don't you say that it's your fault now
We are practically pushed you away
My mother's getting sick about the moment
I hope you come before it's just too late

Lucy, why'd it take so long to tell me?
Had I known, I would have been home
Hope it's not too late
Please Lucy, give mom the strength to stay awake
I'm on my way, I'm on my way
