

The Story

Luke Christopher

We push and pull, our hearts are left broken
Fight until your armor gets stolen
Love, that's just how the story goes
That's just how the story goes

Undercover queen in the washed out sea
Boyfriend's hoodie and her boyfriend's jeans
I remember telling her that she was too clean
She told me I was lucky, I ain't know what's underneath
I fell for her quickly, couldn't take my eyes off
Whenever she was with me
Said you couldn't fix me, boy, this shit is risky
I told you you can tell me what to do, don't mean I listen
I plan to give you anything and everything you're missing
And you may not be perfect but we'll make it through
And who the fuck am I to tell you what to do
When I get to preaching I get left on read
I ain't tryna be a preacher, girl, I'm tryna be your friend
When you go and talk to me, and laugh with me
We could have been a classy thing, a masterpiece
It might not be a issue officially
But tell me what it is gon' be Cause I'm just not gon' sit in peace

We push and pull, our hearts are left broken
Fight until your armor gets stolen
Love, that's just how the story goes
That's just how the story goes

I don't like your friends, they don't like me
I don't like the way that they toy with your self esteem
You say they're playing around
But you know them bitches is mean
They love when they see you down
They should hype you up like a queen
And I don't say shit cause it's your life
But just watching you go through
It's giving me sore eyes
And I don't
Know how long I could hike on the high road
I got my own shit I should fight for
What's on the menu?
It's looking like hearbreak
Girl should we end this?
Just for our hearts' sake
We lost our [?]
It goes with the deal
What do you want this ain't your mausoleum
We know that couple girl
Are we tryna be 'em?
I don't think so
Baby we should take a lil time just to think uh
Maybe it's better we learn early
Cause I'm tired of fighting these fires that gonna burn me

Push and pull, our hearts are left broken
Fight until your armor gets stolen

Love, that's just how the story goes
That's just how the story goes
Push and pull, our hearts are left broken
Fight until your armor gets stolen
Love, that's just how the story goes
That's just how the story goes
