

Waterfalls

Luke Christopher

Yeah, last night I told
All my feelings in tact
I know, she wasn't sold
Think I'm obsessive romantic
She ain't been to a show
Better that way, she say, "Why?"
I spit the perfect replies
She say, to spare me the lines
Thought that I could just buy you, when I spend the time
And now I'm stuck with my pride hurt
Left me on my high horse and I told you, that I'd try more
To give you what you need

I'm saying, "Baby, your doorstep's looking hella crazy"
There's flowers everywhere, girl
You said "I don't know you at all"

Weekends in the mountains, in the mountains
Picnics under rainbows and rainbows
Kissing under waterfalls, that's not love
The flowers ain't working, when you gonna show up
Throwing pennies in the fountain, the fountain
Lying on my payroll, my payroll
Kissing under waterfalls, waterfalls
That's not love, love is you and me, babe

Now I know it's not for sure
Yeah, known for a fact
Yeah, I know it's not for sure (Love is you and me, babe)
Yeah, I took a break
I know love is not a show
Yeah, I took a break, I know love is-

Yeah, just once a month I could put you first
Baby, your sadness in Louis caskets, shit never works
First class to Paris, it's just you and the wine
Told you, I would be there, couldn't find you the time
I told myself that I gave you my all
I wasn't there, when you needed me most
So I give you things, thought I filled that space
I thought, that we were great

I'm saying, "Baby, your doorstep's looking hella crazy"
There's flowers everywhere, girl
You said "I don't know you at all"

Weekends in the mountains, in the mountains
Picnics under rainbows and rainbows
Kissing under waterfalls, that's not love
The flowers ain't working, when you gonna show up
Throwing pennies in the fountain, the fountain
Lying on my payroll, my payroll
Kissing under waterfalls, waterfalls
That's not love, love is you and me, babe

Now I know it's not for sure
Yeah, known for a fact
Yeah, I know it's not for sure (Love is you and me, babe)
Yeah, I took a break
I know love is not a show
Yeah, I took a break, I know love is-

All the moments, that I had, yeah
Were the days something new ain't never happened
Yeah, I don't know why I do what I do, but I'm sorry
I'm sorry, I really am this time
