

Forever Endeavour

Luke Sital-Singh

Will we remember this?
Not just the worst of it?
There's nothing sacred
To how we make it

Time will just speed away
Once the world is safe
Will I use it?
Or keep on I losing it?

In the morning light
Before the questions bite
All I am is yours
All I am is yours

Learning lullabies
To drown the quiet lies
And the droning sounds that keep me up at night

Bright mirror
Blue river
Wash over
Our forever endeavour
Moon shimmer
Move slower
But take cover
'Cause everyone is terrified of loss
And counting the cost
Just like us

When we're homeward bound
Will even know the crowd
It's only wasted
You forsake it

Remember those fading scars
I'll always be proud of ours
We won't forget it
Just don't regret it

Bright mirror
Blue river
Wash over
Our forever endeavour
Moon shimmer
Move slower
But take cover
'Cause everyone is terrified of loss
And counting the cost
You'll just never find
A painless way to say goodbye
You're all that I need
Will you fall with me?
Bright mirror
Moon river
Rush over
Our forever endeavor

Moon shimmer
Move slower
Take cover
Is everyone else terrified of love?
