

Hallelujah Anyway

Luke Sital-Singh

Every morning pray for rain
To bring that feeling back again
Something falling on my skin
A holy moment happening
How it hurts remembering

Can I sing hallelujah anyway?
When the days are long
And the night won't fade
Hallelujah anyway
Through the pain is real
And I'm not ok
Can I sing hallelujah anyway?

Did I hear someone whispering?
Or a memory in the wind
When brokenness becomes a friend
It's a holy moment happening
But it can hurt remembering

When I sing hallelujah anyway?
When the days are long
And the nights won't fade
Hallelujah anyway
Through the pain is real
And I'm not ok
Can I sing hallelujah anyway?

I'll keep singing like a lonely choir
Every note is lifting higher
When my voice breaks
And I can't see straight
Something stops me giving in

When I sing hallelujah anyway?
When the days are long
And the night won't fade
When we sing hallelujah anyway
Through the pain is real
And I'm not ok
Hallelujah anyway
Can we sing hallelujah anyway?
Can we sing hallelujah anyway?

Can I sing hallelujah anyway?
