

Late for the Sky

Luke Sital-Singh

The words had all been spoken
The song had a feeling still wasn't right
And still, we get to mute on through the night
Chasing our steps from the beginning
Until they vanished into the air
Try to understand that [?]

Looking hard into your eyes
There was nobody I've ever known
Such an empty surprise
Feel so alone

Now for me, some words come easy
But I know that they don't mean that much
Compared with the things that I said, my lover
You never knew what I loved in you
And I don't know what you loved in me
Maybe the picture of somebody, will open at my [?]

Awake again I can't pretend
And I know I'm alone
And close to the end of the feeling we've known
How long have I been sleeping
How long have I been drifting alone through the night
How long have I been dreaming I could make it right
If I close my eyes and tried with all my mind
To be the one you need

Awake again I can't pretend
And I know I'm alone
And close to the end of the feeling we've known
How long have I been sleeping
How long have I been drifting alone through the night
How long have I been running for that morning flight
Through the whispered promises and the change in light
Of the bed where we both lied

Late for the sky