

Love is Hard Enough Without the Winter

Luke Sital-Singh

Good morning, my love
Was I quiet enough?
I was trying to make plans
To make you proud I'm your man

Are you broken inside?
Has the cold taken hold?
I've been up since half five
To make up for lost time

I think everything's fine
But if we're honest this time
I'd say love is hard enough without the winter

Good morning, my dear
How much of that did you hear?
I was sparring with myself
Spilling coffee on the shelf

When you see others in love
Does it ever feel like a shove?
I love that when I can't sleep
You're always also struggling with me

I think everything's fine
But if we're honest this time
I'd say love is hard enough without the winter

I think everything's fine
But if we're honest next time
I'd say love is hard enough without Love is hard enough without
Love is hard enough without the winter
