

Maybe Tomorrow

Luke Sital-Singh

I hope maybe tomorrow
I'm gonna get it right
I'm gonna hurt a little less inside

I say maybe tomorrow
Give it another try
I wanna hurt a little less inside

I lay back down
My body broken
Is hope found
Or is hope chosen

It takes its toll
On my brightest spirit
It's darkening
Oh I'm just in it

Oh I'm wanting
Oh I'm hurting
But I'm holding on

I hope maybe tomorrow
I'm gonna get it right
I'm gonna hurt a little less inside

I say maybe tomorrow
Give it another try
I wanna hurt a little less inside

I heard someone say
Don't plan on waiting
But I don't have today
Cos it's dead end burning

Let me try again
In the fresh faced morning
When the light breaks in
And the day begins

Oh I'm wanting
Oh I'm hurting
But I'm holding on

I hope maybe tomorrow
I'm gonna get it right
I'm gonna hurt a little less inside

I say maybe tomorrow
Give it another try
I wanna hurt a little less inside

I'm gonna get it right
Give it another try

I'm gonna get it right
Give it another try

I'm gonna get it right
Give it another try
