

Pure

Luke Sital-Singh

Night times slows
Raindrops splash rainbows
Perhaps someone you know could sparkle and shine

As daydreams slide to color from shadow
Picture the moonglow that dazzles my eyes
And I love you
Just lying smiling in the dark
Shooting stars around your heart
Dreams come bouncing in your head
Pure and simple everytime
Now you are crying in your sleep
I wish you never learned to weep
Unsell the dreams you should be keeping
Pure and simple everytime
Dreams outsides
Of slaighrides in season
With feelings not reason
Can make you decide
As leaves pour down
Splash autumn on garden
As cold a nights harden
Their moonlit delights
And I love you
Lying smiling in the dark
Shooting stars around your heart
Dreams come bouncing in your head
Pure and simple everytime
Now you are crying in your sleep
I wish you'd never learned to weep
Don't sell the dreams you should be keeping
Pure and simple everytime
Look at me with starry eyes
Push me up to starry sky
There is stardust in my head
Pure and simple everytime
Fresh and deep as ocean's new
Shiver at the sight of you
I sing myself a tune
Pure and simple over you

If love is truth then look no lies
Let me swim around your eyes
I'll find a place I'll never leave
Smy mouth and just believe
Love is the truth I realize
Not a stream of pretty lies
To use us up and waste our time
Shooting stars around your heart
Now you are crying in your sleep
Don't sell the dreams you should be keeping
Look at me with starry eyes

Push me up to starry sky
There is stardust in my head

Pure and simple just for you
