

BULLET

LUNA KILLS

You hit me like a bullet
Straight through my heart

Cold as your heart is, I'm here to see it bleed
I'm not here to stay safe, I'm not here to find peace
I'm here to play your game, 'cause I never learned how to quit
I really tried to stay away, but this keeps pulling me back in

You hit me like a bullet
Straight through my heart

You hit me like a bullet, right from the start
You hit me like a bullet, straight through my heart

Cold as your touch is, I still reach out for it
I'm not bulletproof I, I can't defend myself
This world it stops, It falls apart
And I'm here for it

You hit me like a bullet, right from the start
You hit me like a bullet, straight through my heart
