

deep cuts

LUNA KILLS

There ain't no quiet thoughts in this misery
Just a pitch black void staring back at me
Ignoring all I see, like it's my goddamn destiny

'Cause everytime when I see straight
I'll be feeding on the lies that I tell myself
To make me not okay, bet you could take it all away

It's just words, that we say, with no intent
'Cause there's no happy end

You're the only thing that's left for me
But the knife just cuts so goddamn deep
Oh, I'll let you be the one
See me come undone, piece by piece
I built myself through all of these deep cuts

Ain't nothing left, what it used to be Just moving through motions
Looping like infinity
On, and on until there's nothing
There's nothing left of me
Nothing left to see
It's just an afterthought floating

But the knife just cuts so goddamn deep
Oh, I'll let you be the one
See me come undone, piece by piece
I built myself through all of these deep cuts

It's just words, that we say, with no intent
It's just words, that we say, with no intent
It's just words, that we say, with no intent
'Cause there's no happy end

Deep cuts
It's just words, that we say, with no intent
'Cause there's no happy end

But the knife just cuts so goddamn deep
Oh, I'll let you be the one
See me come undone, piece by piece
I built myself through all of these deep cuts
I built myself through all of these deep cuts
