

You wanna scream for me
You wanna scream for me

I'll strip my feathers 'cause I've been to Heaven
And there's nothing to write home about
Standing on the line of fire, my name spells denial
'Cause you look like a dream right now
My head's like a hurricane, jacked up to go again
Over and over we go

I wanna love you like we're in a movie
But I can smell the death 'cause it's looming

You wanna scream for me
'Cause everybody knows you broke my heart of glass
Now I will be your aftermath
You, you gotta give it to me
'Cause everybody fucking knows
Everybody knows you so I love you

Spiral down, on my way to golden hour
You got me feeling like it's over now
Oh, come on, hit pause, press play, game over, let's go

My head's like a hurricane, jacked up to go again
Over and over we go

You wanna scream for me
'Cause everybody knows you broke my heart of glass
Now I will be your aftermath
You, you gotta give it to me
'Cause everybody fucking knows
Everybody knows you so I love you

Out of all the shit I know
I'm painting these walls golden
Everyone keeps telling me
I look like I'm your baby
I don't want to forget my past
I just want you to hold me now like
Love you
Love you

You wanna scream for me
'Cause everybody knows you broke my heart of glass
And I will be your aftermath
You, you gotta give it to me
'Cause everybody fucking knows
Everybody knows you so I love you

'Cause everybody fucking knows
You gotta scream for me
