

Desire

LUNA SEA

Why does time fall why do I fall in love
Ah I'm so afraid I Just lose my mind
Why when I am before you can I not control myself
Ah rob me of my control

I know the future I am not satisfied
Until I know you

[Desire]

The ages are reborn The city gone wild howls
Ah I want to protect you

I know the future I am not satisfied
If you're not there

Violently it seems like my heart is about to burst too much of my mind is being stolen away
Violently and deeply being hurt, even of this I have no fear
No matter what even if my [heart/mind]* breaks even if I tear y ou apart
Violently and passionately, make me hold you tight All of you..

[Desire]

Touching only, I've had that type of love too whiling away the nights
Shadows of my LUV

Violently it seems like my heart is about to burst too much of
my mind is being stolen away
Violently being cut into pieces, even of this I have no fear
No matter what even if my [heart/mind] breaks even if I tear yo u apart
Violently so that even breathing is impossible now kiss...

Violently make me hold you tight your past and your sorrow
I won't stop no one can stop me
