

Back 2 Me

Luna

Run away to the place that I never had
Every turn that I take leads me right back
Love the taste and I'm stuck here feeling attacked

I swear that every day just gets longer
They tell me to get help, but I want out
I'm looking every way for some sonder
But I'm too selfish, I want out

So, tell me why the bad come back to me
Everything I do now saddens me
Screaming out loud, they won't answer me
Guess I'm a walking catastrophe
Don't call my name, I'll run away
Starting to break down, I hate this game
They're up in my face now, I'm feeling shame
Looking for ways out, but I can't change

Pay the price for the life that I never lived
Nothing nice, every night I'll be taking a sip
Everybody's feeling tight, it won't loosen it's grip

I swear that every day just gets longer
They tell me to get help, but I want out
I'm looking every way for some sonder
But I'm too selfish, I want out

So, tell me why the bad come back to me
Everything I do now saddens me
Screaming out loud, they won't answer me
Guess I'm a walking catastrophe
Don't call my name, I'll run away
Starting to break down, I hate this game
They're up in my face now, I'm feeling shame
Looking for ways out, but I can't change

They're up in my face now, I'm feeling shame
Looking for ways out, but I can't change
