

Bad Mood!

Luna

I'm in a bad mood, I can see it today
I remember all my friends and now I'm all that remains
I got some bad news
Gotta go I can't stay
Yeah, this place I call it home is slowly falling away, nah

Feeling hopeless
Yeah, I'm fading out
Keep my head below the water so I finally drown
No emotion, only feeling down
Got some issues that you'll never really know about

I'm waking up and then I run out of patience
I took it from my bedroom to a standing ovation
And everywhere I go, I gotta hide the location
I hear I'm plowing on me like they work at the station
I'm telling everybody get the fuck out my life
I gotta figure out my shit, I'm on the edge of a knife
I'm losing everything I love and now I'm losing my time
And I know it's not right, yeah I know it's not right

I'm in a bad mood, I can see it today
I remember all my friends and now I'm all that remains
I got some bad news
Gotta go I can't stay
Yeah, this place I call it home is slowly falling away, nah

Feeling hopeless
Yeah, I'm fading out
Keep my head below the water so I finally drown
No emotion, only feeling down
Got some issues that you'll never really know about

Another verse, another lack of control
I tried to bite my tongue and hold it in, but I think I won't
I got this money and it's coming quick and I got no soul
From everybody taking pieces of me leaving me broke, oh no
So tell me what you need
Stand and let me bleed
You say you want success, well I really disagree
Got a demon down my neck, and he say he need a fee, yeah
Told him I object, but he holding on to me

I'm in a bad mood, I can see it today
I remember all my friends and now I'm all that remains
I got some bad news
Gotta go I can't stay
Yeah, this place I call it home is slowly falling away, nah

Feeling hopeless
Yeah, I'm fading out
Keep my head below the water so I finally drown
No emotion, only feeling down
Got some issues that you'll never really know about

Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm staying up and you won't take my place
I made like 30 just a week ago and I'm not phased
I heard that song, you dropped your cap and now I see your fate
I made more money than you rapping, you a big disgrace
I'm on my feelings, now I'm feeling reckless (yeah)
I spend like 20 on my bitch's necklace
I saw that car you posted up with, yeah, it's looking rented
Let's stop the games, you little bitch, yeah, let us stop pretending
Yeah, I'm in a mood
My success is something you can't do
I'm coming soon, you can try to copy but you're doomed
Sick of feeling used, now there's no excuse
Yeah, I find it pretty funny that you think I'd ever lose, pussy
I got that timing, yeah, I'm on my way
I feel it, you got some buzz up off of riding waves
I'll steal it, I got them watching like I'm on display
I'll steal it, now it's doomsday, day
