

Escape You

Luna

I been waiting all my life, baby, come through
It's okay to waste my time if it's on you
Don't know why, losing sleep at night
I don't feel alright
Losing sight, thinking 'bout my life
I don't think it's right
I been waiting all my life, baby, come through
It's okay to waste my time if it's on you
Don't know why, losing sleep at night
I don't feel alright
Losing sight, thinking 'bout my life
I don't think it's right

Think that I'm used to this life
But I refuse to rely, on things that don't help me
I feel so unhealthy
I'm not used to asking for help, but you help me
30 day, 30 nights
Think I'll be alright (Nah)
It's the way, words you say
Cuts just like a knife (Ah)
Wish you could see all the things that I gave you
The money don't change shit
No, I can't escape you

No, I can't escape you (I can't escape you)
No, I can't erase you (I can't erase you)
(I can't erase you)
(I can't erase you)

I been waiting all my life, baby, come through
It's okay to waste my time if it's on you
Don't know why, losing sleep at night
I don't feel alright
Losing sight, thinking 'bout my life
I don't think it's right
I been waiting all my life, baby, come through
It's okay to waste my time if it's on you
Don't know why, losing sleep at night
I don't feel alright
Losing sight, thinking 'bout my life
I don't think it's right
