

Hello Little One

Luna

Hello, little one
And what can I say?
That you are not an angel
And I am not a saint

Wasting all my money
On small town trinkets
I lost my silver spoon
And I won't be coming home
Carry on, carry, carry on

I wonder who it is
Whispering in your ear
Hush, hush, little one
Let me back in your life

Take me to the morning
Pretending that I got it made
Cool lips to the bottle
To hell with everyone
