

Mr. Lady

Lunachicks

My brown eye's blue, from so much lovin, I'm gettin
Another lovin oven, one that makes me feel more like,
The woman trapped, so long inside
My body hair has been removed, but I sure have Some muscley thighs The hormones soften up my voice
Goin all the way, I've made the choice
Kick off my boots, slip on my heels, now I'm truly me.
Powder my nose pull on some hose, I'm feelin' free
My lipstick's on, brows penciled on I am so pretty
And even though I'll never bleed, that's o.k. with me
I'm more than a woman, more than a man
I feel larger than life, you must understand
When I was a little boy, Malibu Barbie was my favorite toy
Now there is just no Mistaking, I'm a woman
Just awaking, I feel alive,
A new rebirth, It cost a lot but I think it's worth it
Took many years to have this done, now once a day
I touch my breasts put on a bra, daytime lingerie
Walk down the street in summer's heat strutting to
And fro I'm in a dress, no need to tuck, I'm finally free!!
I strut my stuff all down the street now I'm truly me
I whistle as the boys go by, I'm feelin free I check my Face and grip my mace they won't dare hurt me
I'm feelin right, go out tonite and that's okay with me!
Mr. Lady.
