

Bitter

Lunar Vacation

Only a swallow
Head is too heavy for
Mulling it over
Wait 'til tomorrow
Hundreds of things (Hundreds of things)
I can't take back (I can't take back)
There goes a secret seeping out

Stop being so bitter
Stop being so bitter
Stop being so bitter
Stop being so, stop being

Came in the grocery
Asked for directions
Looking familiar (Looking familiar)
I said we were closing (Said we were closing)
A handful of words
That won't ever come back (Ever come back)
They're spilling, leaking out my mouth

Stop being so bitter
Stop being so bitter
It's gonna get better
Stop being so, stop being

Later on I'll go out walking
Taking everything inside
Filled with water, same indifference
Knowing there's no turning around anymore
No turning around anymore
No turning around
No turning around
No turning around
No turning around

Stop being so bitter (Being so)
Stop being so bitter (Being so)
'Cause it's gonna get better (Being so)
If you just stop being so, stop being
Stop being so bitter (Being so)
Stop being so bitter (Being so)
It's gonna get better (Being so)
Stop being so, stop being

Being so
Being so
Being so, stop being
Being so
Being so
Being so, stop being
