Lunar Vacation

Are you in love?

I saw you walk in by a trailer
But I get tired after a while
It all seems busy, change your hair
To get sponsored and sell your days

I'll talk but I'll probably do it later
I'll take it as a lucky favor

I could be anything you wanted
I'd still be changing with the seasons
I bet you'll never stay up dreaming
Open the door to let the light in

My world is pulsing, I can feel
Your hand in mine, you moved it twice
I'm surrounded by LA
It's way more than my brain can take

I'm sitting at a picnic table
Consuming something that's been catered

I could be anything you wanted
I'd still be changing with the seasons
I bet you'll never stay up dreaming
Open the door to let the light in

I could buy anything you wanted
(I could be anything you wanted)
Tell you about the years they've taken
(I'd still be changing with the seasons)
Can you remember all the faces?
(Open the door to let the sun in)
Are you in love with what you're making?
(Are you in love?)

No one stole the one you wanted
No one stole the one you want
Is it all something that's tainted?
They all swim but you're just wading
