

Feigned Affair

Lunandscape

Feign your love - you're no hero
Pray for all - you're no hero
You seem to lie - you seem to spy
But you're no liar at all
You cannot fake your own mistake
So don't deny me at all
You never fight - you're too polite
You never fire at all
You'll have to break and find a way
Away from it all

Feigned affair
So unfair for love
Feigned affair
No one cares no more
You know I need no enemy
An no desire to part

Don't ever hurt on more alert
Don't take the final card
You better lie - you better smile
And be a giant at heart
If you believe I'd never leave
Then try to restart
